Club Display Cases – The club members voted on the new policy regarding the use of these cases. A copy of the new rules is attached to this report.

Andrew Hagemann, President of the Westerly creek Coin Club, gave a report on the status of this club, which he started at his elementary school. Anyone who has a donation of coins that would interest 3rd graders should contact Andrew or his mother.

John Dean has acquired some club records from Don Koontz and Tom Infantino gave him the club minutes from 2002 through 2007. Tom Keller volunteered to help John; also Steve & Vicki Hunt volunteered to help him at the July meeting.

Tom Keller spoke about the resources at the Denver Public Library. He found a 1963 article on the Denver Coin Club and a 1965 article on the ANA as well as some other interesting coin related articles.

Tom Oliver reminded us that Club Badges are available for $5.00 each. These proceeds go to the Denver Coin Club as Tom is making them free of charge.

Linda Gilmore once again announced that the American Diabetes Society is having a walk on October 24, 2009. Volunteers would be great and donations would be appreciated.

New Business

Tad Wolgamott brought his displays of Lincoln Cents, Half Cents, Two Cents, Three Cents, and Twenty Cents. Tad has shown these coin photographs with lots of detail on each version of the series detailing all changes no matter how minor they first appear. Even the most experienced collectors will learn something from his displays. They are really top quality.
